

The San Diego Public Library

RICK CRAWFORD

author talk

Join author and noted historian Rick Crawford as he shares anecdotes that once splashed across San Diego newspaper headlines. His book, highlighting the city's colorful past, includes stories of a jailbreak by a man facing ten years in San Quentin for cow theft, a visit from escape artist Harry Houdini, and a civic league's closure of the Stingaree red-light district.

FREE (First come, first served seating)

6:30 pm, Wednesday, December 7

San Diego Public Library

Auditorium--3rd floor

820 E Street--San Diego

Copies of the book will be available for purchase at the event!

THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO

This information will be made available in alternative formats upon request.